DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-4, 6-14, and 16-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1, "wherein the synthesized beam with substantially the same intensity as the intensity of the laser beam" is not a clear description. There is no clear antecedent basis for "the synthesized beam with substantially the same intensity". There is no clear antecedent basis for "the intensity of the laser beam" because "a plurality of beam generators each generating a laser beam" was earlier recited.

Claim 6, "the synthesized beam with substantially the same intensity as the intensity of the laser beam" is not a clear description.

Claim 16, "a synthesized beam with substantially the same intensity as the intensity of the laser beam from the laser beams generated by the beam generators" is not a clear description.

The dependent claims comprise the unclear language of the base claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1-4, 6-14, and 16-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US20020080497A1 to Tanaka et al in view of USPN 4,701,591 to Masaki et al.

Tanaka et al disclose performing laser crystallization and describe (Figure 2, [0064]-[0067]) plural laser sources which are combined using a light path difference in order to improve irradiation of the substrate with longer duration.

Masaki et al describe (Front Page) simultaneous processing of two works using a divided laser beam and sequentially processing two additional works.

The instant claimed methods would have been obvious at the time applicant's invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art because the laser combining is known and distribution of energy to plural workstations is known in order to improve production.

The use of a chamber with an optical unit and a stage would have been obvious at the time applicant's invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art because each chamber can have environmental control.

Note, method limitations do not impart structure to the instant apparatus claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
